

Name: Colt Smith

Born: November 2, 1975

Place of Birth: Worcester, Massachusetts

Code Name: Nightman

Early life: Early on in Colts life his father was murdered by a street thug in a back alley. Due to this his mother started to abuse drugs and became an alcoholic. Then Colt became a foster kid and moved from foster home to foster home. Colt had no role model in his life and was a problematic kid and this continued into adulthood.

Adulthood: Colt did not go to college nor did he finish high school. He kept a job a local gas station and became addicted to alcohol. One night coming home from a local bar he killed driving while drunk. He threw the body in the back of his truck and nobody knew about it. The next day he thought about it and thought it was exciting. He felt like he was having fun. This went on for 20 years and became known as Nightman.
